6. What is your name?

7. What is your job title and / or responsibility in school?

8. What is your school email address? Please give us your email address, not the central school email address.

9. What is the best phone number to reach you on?

10. How many pupils are there in your school?

11. How many teaching staff are there in your school?

12. Roughly how many staff do you anticipate engaging with this project?

To be successful, we require a cohort of school staff to engage. Typically this would include at least one senior manager and a selection of teaching staff across stages and curricular responsibilities.

13. What is the percentage of pupils receiving free school meals?

14. Please briefly describe the socio-demographic makeup of your school.

15. Where are you now? Can you outline your school's progress in providing high-quality climate change education?

We want to collaborate with schools who are at different stages in their climate change education journey and with a range of educators. We want to work in partnership with schools who have ambition and commitment to developing excellent climate change education and developing their expertise.

16. Briefly explain to what extent climate change education is a strategic priority in your school.

Here are some of the questions you may want to consider. What support and policies does your school have for teaching about climate change? Why did you start teaching it, and who is involved? Do you already have plans or resources, or are you figuring out how to start? Have you talked to the school community, or are you still developing ideas?

17. What is your purpose for climate change education, and what specific positive impacts do you aim to achieve for your students, the school community and the local area?

18. Please confirm that you have obtained support from the headteacher for your involvement as a Climate School 180 Pathfinder.

- Yes
- No

19. What is the name of your headteacher?

20. Please provide the contact number for your headteacher.

As part of our high-quality recruitment process we will organise a short conversation with the headteacher to ensure that our purposes for the project are in alignment.

21. Please provide an email address for your headteacher.

We will only use this for sending them an Agreement to Partner form.

22. How did you hear about the Climate School 180 programme?
